

Checklist for Comparative Literature Ph.D. Program

- YEAR 1
- Coursework (Fall):* Three (3) full-credit courses including CPLT 750 and CPLT 735
 - Coursework (Spring):* Three (3) full-credit courses
 - Note:* Four (4) courses must be taken in either fall or spring of Year 1
 - Jones Program in Ethics:* JPE 600
 - Recommended:* Attend at least one JPE 610 lecture, workshop, or training session
- SUMMER
- Teaching:* TATTO 600 (2-day training in August)
- YEAR 2
- Coursework (Fall):* Three (3) full-credit courses
 - Coursework (Spring):* Three (3) full-credit courses
 - Teaching:* TATTO 605 (CPLT 110, fall or spring)
 - Language Requirement:* Demonstrate high level of proficiency in primary language
 - Recommended:* Attend at least one JPE 610 lecture, workshop, or training session
 - Recommended:* Request teaching observation letter from faculty
 - Recommended:* Form examination committee including advisor
- YEAR 3
- Teaching:* TATTO 610 (CPLT 201 or 202, fall or spring)
 - Qualifying Examination* (late fall or early spring is recommended)
 - Ph.D. Examination* (late spring is recommended, but must be taken no later than Sept. 15 of Year 4)
 - Language Requirement:* Demonstrate reading knowledge in secondary language
 - Recommended:* Attend at least one JPE 610 lecture, workshop, or training session
 - Recommended:* Request teaching observation letter from faculty
 - Recommended:* Begin submitting work for conference presentations and scholarly publications
 - Recommended:* Form dissertation committee including advisor
- YEAR 4
- Teaching:* TATTO 610 (CPLT 201 or 202, fall or spring)
 - Note:* All students must enter candidacy by Sept. 15
 - Dissertation Prospectus and Defense* (no later than Mar. 15)
 - Recommended:* Attend at least one JPE 610 lecture, workshop, or training session
 - Recommended:* Submit work for conference presentations and scholarly publications
- YEAR 5
- Teaching:* TATTO 610 (CPLT 201 or 202, fall or spring)
 - Dissertation*
 - Jones Program in Ethics:* All JPE requirements must be completed
 - Recommended:* Submit work for conference presentations and scholarly publications
 - Recommended:* Participate in Job Placement events and activities offered by Dept. of Comparative Literature and Laney Graduate School
 - Note:* If dissertation is not complete, apply for competitive sixth-year funding